

Coop's Scoops # too many! Monday, April 27, 2020

Greetings, brothers and sisters!

NOT TO WORRY

THIS HEALTH
CANADA
BREAKING NEWS
IS REALLY JUST A SPOOF! (I
mean you could do it,
but it's really quite that warm yet!)

There is a lot of scamming going on
these days on the web.
Some of it is downright evil, and dangerous for everyone.

Read on for some important news about false requests that appear to be real!

Archdeacon Kelly advises that just today three All Saint's folks were sent scam requests. They were almost successful. If you see anything headed Pastoralaffair 3d@gmail.com don't even open it. If you do, you will find someone using my name to tell you that I need gift cards for emergencies, and that you should buy one, scratch off the code, take a photo of the code and send it to their email address. That heading could change as they new criminals adapt their evil habits. Meanwhile, whatever codes they get sent they use to shop online for goodness knows what things....could even be weapons. So please be careful. Warn anyone you know about this especially people who might be particularly vulnerable to an appeal they think is from me. Or Kelly. Or any minister.

Thanks very much to our Archdeacon for trying to keep us safe from these scammers!

Tomorrow I will send you a great long full Scoops! Have been extremely busy today but wanted to get the warning out to you for sure.

So... here's a joke for today:

The Talking Frog

A pastor was crossing a road one day when a frog called out to him and said, "If you kiss me, I'll turn into a beautiful princess." He bent over, picked up the frog and put it in his pocket.

The frog spoke up again and said, "If you kiss me and turn me back into a beautiful princess, I will stay with you for one week"

The pastor took the frog out of his pocket, smiled at it and returned it to the pocket.

The frog then cried out, "If you kiss me and turn me back into a princess, I'll stay with you and give you anything you want."

Again the pastor took the frog out, smiled at it and put it back into his pocket.

Finally, the frog asked, "What is the matter? I've told you I'm a beautiful princess, that I'll stay with you for a week and give you anything you want. Why won't you kiss me?"

The pastor said, "Look I'm a pastor. I already have a wonderful wife who is everything to me. What I didn't have was a talking frog, but hey, now I do! And that's really cool! "

And another joke from an 8 year old boy named Austin:
"Hey Pastor Judie.... You said that God loves everyone, but I'm telling you, He never met my sister!"

A prayer for bedtime! O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, the busy world is hushed, the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then, in thy mercy, grant us safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the least.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen. (both from Book of Common Prayer)

Blessing: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all, forevermore. Amen.

Off for a nice long walk down Fraserburg Road, where in the last five days I've seen an otter, a mink, a fox, several horses, and so many birds singing praises to God that I am trying to find a way to make them into our new choir.

Blessings to all!

Judie+
